

Conservatory Collaborations

Conservatory Collaborations is a program offering graduate students and young professionals in conducting and composing free access to New York Philharmonic rehearsals, as well as roundtable discussions with guest artists.

APPLICATION

Name _____

Mailing address _____

E-mail address _____ Phone number _____

School affiliation _____

Degree(s) earned and year(s) _____

In a few sentences, please tell us how observing rehearsals at the New York Philharmonic and Conductors' or Composers' Tables might impact your current studies and/or professional pursuits.

Attending closed or open rehearsals at the New York Philharmonic—and Conductors' or Composers' Tables—are special opportunities that we are pleased to provide for free to qualified candidates. In return, we ask that participants conduct themselves professionally and follow our simple protocol, outlined in the "Rehearsal Pass Procedure" and "Rehearsal Pass" documents that you will receive.

By signing below, I agree to respect the instructions outlined in the "Rehearsal Pass" that accompanies me while in Avery Fisher Hall.

Signature

Date

Please return this form along with a current résumé to:

rehearsals@nyphil.org
or fax: (212) 875-5716
or

Education Department
New York Philharmonic
132 West 65th Street
New York, NY 10023