

NEW YORK PHILHARMONIC

Concerts in the Parks @ Home

PRESENTED BY DIDI AND OSCAR SCHAFER

Picnic Checklist

Since the New York Philharmonic Concerts in the Parks began in 1965, more than 14 million people across New York City have gathered for free classical music concerts under the stars — often with impressive picnics.

Because we can't be together physically this year, we encourage you — whether you're in New York or not — to prepare a picnic for your living room, fire escape, or even outdoors from a safe distance to enjoy during the Concerts in the Parks @ Home broadcast (June 25 at 7:30pm EDT).

Here's a checklist to help you prepare for your Concerts in the Parks @ Home picnic.

- Picnic blanket
- Refreshing beverage
- Companion(s) on your blanket and / or via Zoom
- Zoom background of Central Park or Prospect Park*
- Zoom background of fireworks to close out the night!*
